

Motor Home Insurance

Life on the road begins with Allstate.

Allstate[®]

You're in good hands.

When you go on the road, take Allstate.

Your motor home is more than just a way to get from one place to another. It's your home away from home. So you need an insurance policy that helps protect your motor home and the things in it.

With Allstate Motor Home Insurance, you can get solid coverage and a variety of deductible options.

Coverage that fits your lifestyle and vacation style.

Allstate offers insurance options to help cover a range of protection needs. Your Allstate agent can help you choose the coverage that works best for you and your motor home.

Motor Home Comprehensive/ Collision Coverage

Collision coverage typically pays for damage to your motor home that was the result of a covered accident with another vehicle.

Comprehensive coverage typically covers damage to your motor home caused by something other than collision, such as damage from falling objects, fire, theft, vandalism, explosion, earthquake and more.

Expand your protection.

This optional package is available with comprehensive/collision coverage if you bought your motor home new, and it's less than two model years old.

Lease or Loan Gap Coverage

In the event of a covered total loss or theft, loan or lease gap coverage pays the difference between the actual cash value of your motor home and the amount remaining on your loan or lease.

Repair Provision*

Allstate will help pay to repair your motor home without a deduction for depreciation. Or Allstate will pay for a totally new motor home in the event of a covered total loss due to physical damage.

Save money with Allstate.

You can qualify for a discount by transferring your motor home policy to Allstate. In fact, Allstate offers several motor home discounts that could save you up to 40% on your motor home premium. Ask your Allstate agent to see if you qualify for the following:
